

VinTech Corp Employee Handbook

VinTech Corp • Internal Document • Doc No. HR-001 • Version 1.0

1. Introduction

This Employee Handbook applies to all full-time and part-time employees of VinTech Corp ("the Company"). It summarizes key workplace policies, employee responsibilities, and standards of conduct. Employees are expected to read this handbook in full and to raise any questions with the Human Resources (HR) department.

2. Employment Status

New hires join the Company as probationary employees. The probationary period is 2 months from the employee's start date. During this period, performance and cultural fit are reviewed by the employee's direct manager, and either party may end the employment relationship with shortened notice as described in the offer letter.

At the end of the probationary period, HR will confirm the employee's status in writing. Confirmed employees move to standard employment terms as described in this handbook.

3. Resignation Procedure

Employees who wish to resign must submit a resignation in writing to their manager and to HR. Resignation requires 30 days' written notice, counted from the date the written resignation is received by HR. The Company may, at its discretion, agree to a shorter notice period in individual cases.

During the notice period, the employee is expected to complete a handover of ongoing responsibilities and return all Company property, including laptops, access cards, and other equipment.

4. Working Hours and Attendance

Standard working hours are Monday through Friday, 09:00 to 18:00, with a one-hour unpaid lunch break. Employees are expected to record attendance through the Company's HR system on each working day.

5. Sick Leave

Employees are entitled to 10 paid sick days per year. Sick leave must be reported to the employee's manager as early as possible on the day of absence, and a medical certificate is required for absences of two or more consecutive days.

6. Overtime

Overtime is only performed with prior approval from the employee's manager. Overtime is compensated per the company's benefits policy. Employees should refer to the Benefits Guide for the applicable compensation rate and calculation method.

7. Code of Conduct

Employees are expected to act with integrity, treat colleagues and customers with respect, and comply with all applicable laws and Company policies, including the Data Privacy Policy and the Information Security guidelines referenced elsewhere in this handbook.

8. Disciplinary Procedure

Violations of Company policy are addressed through a progressive disciplinary process consisting of a verbal warning, a written warning, and, where necessary, termination of employment, depending on the severity of the violation.
