

VinTech Corp Shareholder Agreement Summary (Non-Confidential)

VinTech Corp • Internal Document • Doc No. LEG-014 • Version 1.0

1. Purpose

This document provides a high-level, non-confidential summary of the rights described in VinTech Corp's shareholder agreement, for general internal reference. The full agreement is confidential and held by Legal and the Company Secretary.

2. Share Classes

VinTech Corp has issued both common shares and preferred shares, with preferred shares generally carrying certain liquidation and anti-dilution protections not available to common shareholders.

3. Voting Rights

Common shareholders are generally entitled to one vote per share on matters submitted to a shareholder vote, such as election of directors and major corporate transactions.

4. Board Representation

Certain major shareholders hold the right to nominate one or more representatives to the Board of Directors, as set out in the full agreement.

5. Transfer Restrictions

Share transfers are subject to a right of first refusal in favor of existing shareholders, intended to give existing investors the opportunity to purchase shares before they are sold to a third party.

6. Information Rights

Major shareholders are entitled to receive periodic financial and operational updates from the Company, on a schedule defined in the full agreement.

7. Confidentiality

Full commercial and financial terms of the shareholder agreement are confidential and not reproduced in this summary; employees should direct detailed questions to Legal.
